

Market Report

2022 Week 18

All the major processors have stood on this week with price, producers need money now!

The SPP has moved up in the right direction for a number of weeks, the SPP Euro spec stands at 164.92p/kg which is up 3.18p up on the week. It isn't enough! We need the retail sector to come to the table and put money in now. There cannot be any processor jostling for pigs at the moment because there is still a back log up and down the country and until that back log disappears completely, we won't have the chance for any spot loads to push up the SPP.

Sows have stood on. The Fresh Meat market all put money in albeit in a short week, but numbers weren't great.
